

October 14, 2010

RSD ADVENTURES

IN EDUCATION

A Photographer's Quest to Protect America's Wildlife

October 14, 2010

1545 St. Paul St., Rochester, NY 14621

18th Annual Adventures in Education presents

Freedom to Roam

A Photographer's Quest to Protect America's Wildlife

Florian Schulz

Award-Winning Nature and Wildlife Photographer/Conservationist

Founder of the "Freedom to Roam—Wildlife Corridor" Project, National Wildlife Federation's Photographer of the Year, and winner of the Independent Book Publishers' Outstanding Book of the Year Award for his photo journal, Yellowstone to Yukon, Freedom to Roam.

Mr. Schulz will present a stunning collection of visuals, both photography and video, as he shares with us stories about his many adventurous expeditions, encounters with wildlife and how his important work endeavors to protect America's wildlife.

Tickets:

$45 Per Person—Hors d'oeuvres & Dessert Reception, Presentation

$20 Per Person—Presentation Only

For tickets or underwriting opportunities,
please call 585-544-1240 (voice/TTY) or visit www.RSDeaf.org/Adventures

Photos © Florian Schulz / visionsofthewild.com

Nonprofit Org.
US Postage
PAID
Rochester, NY
Permit No. 1783